Message From the Mayor

As the Mayor of the City of Macon, I want to welcome you to our website. This website is our opportunity to communicate to everyone the feeling of excitement and pride in our community that the citizens of Macon share. We are hopeful that the website offers many resources you may need, however, please contact City Hall if we can be of service.

I am proud to be the Mayor of Macon and am even more proud to call it home. Thank you to all citizens that are a part of our wonderful community and welcome to any visitors. Whether you are here for a short visit or here for a lifetime, we are happy that you are here.
